FROM THE PRINCIPALS DESK

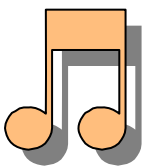

The end of the first semester is in sight and the High School and Middle School students will begin their exams on Monday. Idd Ul Adha was scheduled for Thursday, 20 DEC 07, and has been moved to Wednesday, 19 DEC 07. West Nairobi School will adhere to the current schedule with school on Monday through Wednesday and will celebrate Idd Ul Adha on Thursday. Busses and classes will run as normal Monday through Wednesday. High School students' exam schedule will allow for a 12:20 dismissal on each of these days.

We look ahead to the start of school on 15 JAN 07, which is a half day, and the enrollment of 25 new/returning students. The word is out, WNS is a happening place!

Bands Visit Dagoretti Children's Home

The Elementary and Advanced bands took the show on the road, and presented their concert at Dagoretti Children's Home last Thursday. The children enjoyed hearing the holiday numbers and afterwards Miss Keyser led everyone in a game of Lion Lion Zebra. A fun time was had by all, and many thanks to Miss Keyser for organizing the trip!

PTF NEWS

The Christmas Carnival was lots of fun last Saturday

We had about 20 different cookies to taste for the contest. (It's a tough job but someone's gotta do it 😊.)

Fortunately we had help from all those who attended.)

1st place went to Patty Arensen for her Almond Roca recipe. She won a delicious dinner for two at Rusty Nail Restaurant in Karen.

2nd place went to Lesa Brown for her Chocolate Patch Cookie Recipe. She won a 1000ksh gift certificate to Toy World.

Lots of other prizes were awarded as well.

Thanks to all those of you who contributed to our cookie contest and those of you who came just to help with the judging 😊!

3rd and 4th grade tied for bringing in the most recipes. They will both be treated to a "Cookies and Cocoa Party" during class time on Friday, 14th Dec.

If you are interested in purchasing a cookbook starring the above mentioned recipes plus many more (over 20 cookie recipes are included!), please send in the info below with your payment. All orders need to be in by Tuesday, 18th Dec. We will do our best to have cookbooks delivered on Wednesday.
